

Psalms 27: 1-3

The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell. Though an army should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear; though war should rise against me, even in this will I be confident.

Cancer Kids for Christ Announces

"Look up" Childhood Cancer Ministry Launches

Atlanta, GA - June 15, 2008 - Cancer Kids for Christ has officially launched a local, national and international Christ-centered outreach ministry for children and teens battling childhood cancer. Team members are presently reaching out to children and their families with practical hands-on support for the many everyday trials that overwhelm and overtake their lives. Specially designed programs and events are being formed to offer hope and guidance during their time of greatest need. As founders, we, Michael and Kristan Bagley, are determined to motivate the body of Christ to join the battle of lifetime.

Four years ago Cancer Kids for Christ was only a vision. For our family it was a vision of hope; a hope for the thousands of children and teens who endure childhood cancer each year. The vision took shape from the example of the many friends and family members who sacrificially supported our son, Chandler. Today the vision is a clear mission. To bring comfort, hope and joy to children with cancer and their families by practically serving them through a Christ-centered support team focused solely on meeting their physical, emotional and spiritual needs.

Our hope is that we are able to comfort each family with the comfort with which we ourselves were comforted by God. 2 Corinthians 1:4, paraphrased.

Reflection Retreat: First Annual Father & Son Camping Event

2008 marks the year of our first annual father & son camping trip. Cancer Kids for Christ first annual Reflection Retreat is designed to allow youth boys who are off-therapy and their fathers a time to relax, rest, release, renew, reconnect, reflect and rejoice in the completion of treatment.

August 7th, 8th and 9th 2008

This year we will be hiking and boating at Lake Fontana North Carolina in the Great Smoky Mountains. Fathers and sons will be joined with a team of volunteers in an environment created by God and surrounded by His peace. Activities are specifically designed to allow fathers to reconnect with their sons and look forward to the next phase in the cancer battle.

Children and Family Year-Round Ministry

Cancer Kids for Christ year-round ministry is designed as a support outreach to the thousands of children and their families who suffer with cancer. Families are cared for through a volunteer team dedicated to prayer, counseling, visitation and physical support. Families are introduced to people in their own local community who are trained and focused on their immediate needs. From first diagnosis and beyond, families are able to build life-long relationships that will help sustain them and comfort them.

Childhood cancer is a defining moment for the child and many of his or her caregivers. In the midst of devastating news and insurmountable treatment, Cancer Kids for Christ seeks to join forces with family and friends in an effort to ease the tragedy and bring hope for all.

Families, allow our team to join hands with you and serve. Learn more at our website. Click here.

Send prayer request to prayers@cancerkidsforchrist.org and our prayer warriors will immediately join your family in the fight.

Volunteers are needed across the country to reach children in your own backyard. Learn more how you can help at our website. Click here.
